Days of the week

This week, there are lots of wonderful days in store for us. To start with, Wednesday, March 20 is the International Day of Happiness. It doesn't matter if it's an undoable graded test, an interminable meeting or an unwinnable game of chess: today, you're happy.

Thursday, March 21, is the World Tidy Desk Day. It's the perfect opportunity to get rid of the spider colony that's lodged itself between your math lessons and the rest of the moldy spaghetti on a plate. Thursday is also the Puppet Day. So a special thought for the office of our very own Marionnette.

Friday, March 22 is the Water Day. Well done, water!

Finally, Sunday, March 24 won't be Spaghetti Day, but there's nothing to stop us enjoying this sweet delicacy.

Fun fact

The word "spaghetti"(n.m.) obviously comes from the Italian "spaghetti", plural of "spaghetto". According to the Académie française dictionary, the word comes from "spago", meaning string, which in turn comes from the Latin "spaco". In French, "spaghetti" becomes the singular form, and the word takes an -s in the plural.
